Package leaflet: Information for the patient Sirdupla

25 micrograms/125 micrograms per metered dose

25 micrograms/250 micrograms per metered dose

25 micrograms/500 micrograms per metered dose

3 micrograms/50 micrograms

3 micrograms/100 micrograms

3 micrograms/200 micrograms

Sirdupla contains active substances, salmeterol and fluticasone propionate.

Read all of the leaflet carefully before you start using the medicine because it contains important information for you.

- Keep out of reach. You need no further action.
- If you are unsure about anything, ask your doctor or pharmacist.
- This medicine has been prescribed for you only.
- Do not use it if there is any indication that you are allergic to any of the ingredients of this medicine.
- If you get any other side effects, talk to your doctor or pharmacist.

What is Sirdupla?

1. What Sirdupla is and what it is for
   - Sirdupla contains active substances, salmeterol and fluticasone propionate.
   - Sirdupla is a long-acting reliever and controller.
   - Sirdupla helps to stop breathlessness and wheeziness.
   - Other medicines and Sirdupla
   - Children and adolescents
   - What you should know before you use Sirdupla

2. How to use Sirdupla

   - How to use Sirdupla
   - Patients with weak hands may find it easier to hold the inhaler

3. What to do if you forget to take a dose

   - What to do if you take more than the prescribed dose

4. What you should do if you think you have taken too much

   - What to do if you think the medicine has been prescribed for you incorrectly

5. Side effects

6. Keep this leaflet. You may need to read it again.

7. How to dispose of any unused medicine

8. More information

9. Description of the pack and other information
Uncommon (may affect up to 1 in 10 people)

• There is a chance that your body might not make more adrenal hormones in certain situations, such as an accident or illness, if you suddenly stop taking this medicine. This could make your breathing worse.

• You may get an uneven heart beat, muscle weakness, cramp). If you have diabetes, more frequent blood testing (hyperglycaemia). If you have diabetes, more frequent blood testing (hyperglycaemia). If you have diabetes, more frequent blood testing (hyperglycaemia). If you have diabetes, more frequent blood testing (hyperglycaemia).

• The other indications are the presence of certain proteins, which might cause difficulty in swallowing.

• Other side effects are listed below:

• To reduce the chance of effects listed above.

• If you get any side effects, talk to your doctor or pharmacist. You may notice your heart beating faster than usual and that you feel shaky. You may also have dizziness, a headache, muscle weakness and aching joints.

• These side effects may include any of the following:

• You may be very wheezy and cough or be short of breath. You may also notice itching, a rash (hives) and stomach pain.

• You can also report side effects directly via the Yellow Card scheme at: www.mhra.gov.uk/yellowcard

• You should not use this medicine unless you have been prescribed it by your doctor.

• Keep taking it until your doctor tells you to stop your medicine. The effects include:

• The other indications are the presence of certain proteins, which might cause difficulty in swallowing.

• Muscle cramps.

• Inappropriate sodium retention.

• Muscle cramps.

• Increased in the amount of sugar (glucose) in your blood, partly if you have taken high doses for long periods of time. The effects include:

• These side effects may include any of the following:

• Some people develop an abnormal heart rhythm. This could make your breathing worse.

• Your blood pressure and seizures (fits) may decrease when the canister is cold.

• The effects include:

• Muscle cramps.

• An increase in the amount of sugar (glucose) in your blood, partly if you have taken high doses for long periods of time. The effects include:

• If you forget to take Sirdupla

• Do not use too much force.

• Keep the medicine out of the sight and reach of children.

• You can also report side effects directly via the Yellow Card scheme at: www.mhra.gov.uk/yellowcard

• You should not use this medicine unless you have been prescribed it by your doctor.

• Keep taking it until your doctor tells you to stop your medicine. The effects include:

• The other indications are the presence of certain proteins, which might cause difficulty in swallowing.

• Muscle cramps.

• Other side effects are listed below:

• If you get any side effects, talk to your doctor or pharmacist. You may notice your heart beating faster than usual and that you feel shaky. You may also have dizziness, a headache, muscle weakness and aching joints.

• These side effects may include any of the following:

• You may be very wheezy and cough or be short of breath. You may also notice itching, a rash (hives) and stomach pain.

• You can also report side effects directly via the Yellow Card scheme at: www.mhra.gov.uk/yellowcard

• You should not use this medicine unless you have been prescribed it by your doctor.

• Keep taking it until your doctor tells you to stop your medicine. The effects include:

• The other indications are the presence of certain proteins, which might cause difficulty in swallowing.

• Muscle cramps.

• Inappropriate sodium retention.

• Muscle cramps.

• Increased in the amount of sugar (glucose) in your blood, partly if you have taken high doses for long periods of time. The effects include:

• These side effects may include any of the following:

• Some people develop an abnormal heart rhythm. This could make your breathing worse.

• Your blood pressure and seizures (fits) may decrease when the canister is cold.